“NO ORGANISATION, NOT EVEN THE GOVERNMENT, PROVIDED ANY RELIEF TO THE THOUSANDS OF PEOPLE THAT WERE DISPLACED BY THESE SENSELESS ATTACKS,” SAID RT. REV JACOB KWASHI. “THIS HAS GIVEN US HOPE AS WELL AS ASSURANCES OF THE PRAYERS OF OUR BROTHERS AND SISTERS. WE ARE GRATEFUL.”

Bishop of the Anglican Diocese of Zonkwa, Nigeria

This year, supported by Anglican Aid, Bishop Kwashi oversaw the distribution of food and roofing sheets to villages in southern Kaduna who had been attacked by Islamist groups.

Her new congregation (pictured) was planted after the Anglican Church in Madagascar distributed food aid during a famine, funded by Anglican Aid, and shared the gospel with people in her village.

HOW WE WORK

Anglican Aid is a charity registered with the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission (ACNC), and is accredited by the Christian Management Australia's Standards Council. As a Public Benevolent Institution (PBI), Anglican Aid supports activities in Australia and overseas.

All donations to Anglican Aid are tax-deductible. Internationally, Anglican Aid often works with low capacity partners, supporting small projects that the local community has identified as necessary and urgent. We are involved with a wide range of health, education, income generation, and other capacity-building initiatives. Anglican Aid works with Christian churches and organisations, often within the GAFCON or Global South Anglican networks, and where we have a personal, trusted connection. This reduces the overhead costs of establishing local delivery agencies, as faithful churches exist in most geographic areas of the work we support.

ANGLICAN AID IS ALSO THE TRUSTEE OF TWO FUNDS:

THE OVERSEAS RELIEF AND AID FUND

The Overseas Relief and Aid Fund (ORAF) supports longer term development projects which meet the Overseas Aid Gift Deduction Scheme criteria. These projects assist in empowering and building the capacity of local communities to create sustainable change. ORAF is a registered charity with the ACNC.

THE OVERSEAS MINISTRY FUND

The Overseas Ministry Fund supports ministries in places where strong Bible training is limited and under-resourced, by providing financial support for evangelistic activities and theological training. In doing so, we support the next generation of gospel workers so that the grace of Jesus Christ will be known more widely in the developing world. As a Basic Religious Charity, registered with the ACNC, donations to the Overseas Ministry Fund are not tax-deductible.

The OMF has been approved by the Australian Taxation Office to operate a School Building Fund (SBF). This fund is eligible to receive tax-deductible donations to support capital works at theological colleges.

ANGLICAN AID IS THE OVERSEAS AID, DEVELOPMENT AND MINISTRY SUPPORT AGENCY OF SYDNEY ANGLICANS IN PARTNERSHIP WITH THE GLOBAL CHURCH.

OUR VISION

IS TO SEE THE GRACE OF GOD OVERFLOWING TO A WORLD IN NEED.

OUR MISSION

FROM OUR CHAIRMAN

DEAR FRIENDS,

Thank you for supporting Anglican Aid. Through Anglican Aid we, in the Diocese of Sydney and across Australia, have worked together to see churches strengthened and communities transformed around the world.

We praise God for the growth in Anglican Aid and that in this financial year, for the first time, our income has reached 8 million dollars. This growth has been across all our programs and much of this growth is from increased donations by churches and individuals.

In January 2022, we saw a significant change in the focus of Anglican Aid as we handed over the Australian based 'Community Care' programs to Anglicare. As a result, Anglican Aid has positioned itself to concentrate on international work. We are now the largest Anglican 'Aid and Ministry Support agency' in Australia and one of the largest worldwide.

The relaxation of Covid travel restrictions has enabled the Anglican Aid team to make some significant visits to international partners in the first half of 2022. Visits to DR Congo, South Sudan, Tanzania, Seychelles and Madagascar have enabled staff to build relationships and to take an active part in developing our holistic partnerships. Through the Bible College Student Sponsorship program and grants to Bible Colleges, leaders for the churches are raised up and trained. Alongside this work of strengthening the church through theological education, Anglican Aid enables churches to minister to their own local communities through both emergency and development aid projects.

At the end of April, Tim Swan (CEO), Chris Cooper (Theological Education Director) and I (International Bishop for Sydney Diocese) travelled to northeast Congo to participate in the first national conference on the future of theological education in the Anglican Church of Congo. The funding for theological education across Congo and the conference itself is provided through Anglican Aid. Chaired by the recently appointed Archbishop of Congo and with the majority of the bishops and Bible college principals from the Anglican Church of Congo in attendance, the conference laid the foundation and put plans in place for the implementation of Bible-based, evangelical training for gospel workers into the future.

Anglican Aid has also sent emergency relief to help the church care for those fleeing internal conflict within Congo, and is involved in a significant project to strengthen schools run by the Anglican Church.

Thank you once again for your support. Can I urge you to continue your support of churches and communities around the world through prayer and sacrificial giving so that the vital work of Anglican Aid can continue to the glory of our Lord Jesus.

Malcolm visited church partners in Madagascar this year.

Rev Berthier Lainirina with a church in Madagascar that was planted when the gospel was proclaimed after food distribution.

Tim Swan visited the Nuba Mountains of Sudan where he met Bishop Andudu Elnail.

"IT'S A GOOD HOLISTIC APPROACH, AS WE PROVIDE CLEAN WATER AND SHARE FOOD WITH THEM TO SHOW THEM THE LOVE OF CHRIST, WE ALSO CAN EXPLAIN TO THEM WHO IS CHRIST, WHAT IS THE LOVE OF CHRIST."

REV BERTHIER LAINIRINA, DIOCESE OF TOLIARA, MADAGASCAR

FROM OUR CEO SHOWING CHRIST, EXPLAINING CHRIST

This year I had the privilege of visiting Madagascar and meeting up with Rev Berthier Lainirina who was able to show me how aid, development, gospel proclamation and theological training work together in his diocese, supported by your generous gifts to Anglican Aid. He took me to some of the many churches that have been planted as the gospel was proclaimed following food distribution in response to a famine and drought over a year ago.

"Because of the love we showed through food distribution and clean water and other social works, the church is growing," said Rev Berthier. "So we would like to thank Anglican Aid and the Diocese of Sydney for giving us that support."

It was a joy to meet some of the hundreds of people who have turned to Jesus as a result of this work. I was also able to meet Bible college students who are being trained to lead churches through the support of generous Anglican Aid Bible college sponsors and see some of the water projects funded by Anglican Aid that will help to build the communities' resilience against drought and reduce water-borne disease.

My visit to Madagascar was one of three trips to Africa this year to meet some of our key partners. Due to COVID restrictions, these were the first visits I have been able to make since commencing as CEO back in April 2020. I saw first-hand the schools, vocational training colleges, water projects, and agricultural projects supported by your gifts to Anglican Aid. I also participated in a Theological Education conference with bishops and principals, and visited eight Bible Colleges where some students are sponsored by Anglican Aid supporters.

THE NEEDIEST PLACES

My visits to Africa this year helped me to understand what is happening on the ground, and informed the direction of our 2022-26 Strategic Plan, now finalised. One important strategic decision made together by the board and senior staff, was to concentrate our efforts on supporting communities and partners living in the neediest places in the world, where churches are confronting the greatest persecution and/or poverty, and where theological education is particularly lacking. This has led us to engage more deeply with priority partners in Tanzania, DR Congo, Madagascar, South Sudan, and the Nuba Mountains region in Sudan.

We are committed to providing holistic support to our partners in these places. For us, this means pairing immediate aid with long-term development and building up the local church through training church leaders.

NEW PROGRAMS, NEW PEOPLE

Anglican Aid has experienced significant growth in income during the 2021-22 financial year. This has allowed us to invest more in overseas projects, including starting many new projects and being better equipped to respond to natural disasters. We have also invested in our systems and staff, developing stronger channels of communication with our supporters as we build relationships here and overseas.

This year, Anglican Aid launched a series of new programs - the foremost of which is the Persecuted Christians Support Program. With prayer and financial support from believers in Australia, Anglican Aid has been able to send emergency relief to beloved brothers and sisters suffering violent attacks because of their faith.

We have also progressed the new Developing Countries Education Program which brings together education projects ranging from pre-school to tertiary courses; the new School Building Fund which supports capital works for Bible colleges; and opened tax-deductible opportunities to support Bible college students from developing countries.

To support our expanded work in theological education overseas, Anglican Aid welcomed Dr Chris Cooper as Director of Theological Education, and also appointed Michael Charles and Rev Samuel Majok to this team.

We also farewelled the long-serving and indefatigable Eddie Ozols, who served as Operations Manager of Anglican Aid for nine years. His contributions to our mission are innumerable. His successor, Margo Leach, is ably continuing this work. We also farewelled Virginia Lee, our Donor Relations Officer and Aiden McCorkindale who was replaced by Cameron Jansen as Senior Manager of Projects. We will miss Virginia and Aiden's wisdom, skills and grace as they carried out their work.

I thank God for his hand of blessing over Anglican Aid, our board, staff, and supporters. It has been an absolute privilege to serve as CEO and to see the grace of God overflowing to a world in need.

Let grace flow,

Canon Tim Swan

Tim Swan visited Anglican Church partners in Tanzania this year.

OUR SUPPORTERS

THANK YOU TO ALL WHO PRAY AND GIVE TIME OR MONEY TO SUPPORT ANGLICAN AID PROJECTS. GOD'S GRACE IS OVERFLOWING THROUGH YOUR GENEROSITY TO HELP STRENGTHEN CHURCHES AND TRANSFORM COMMUNITIES AROUND THE WORLD.

MEET SOME OF OUR SUPPORTERS

"Both my family and our church community are very grateful for the partnership with Anglican Aid. It's wonderful to be able to contribute to an organisation in whose leadership and governance we have such confidence. We love the way that Anglican Aid meets the day-to-day needs of people in far-flung places, but always in partnership with trusted Christians on the ground who are committed to sharing the gospel."

Simon Flinders, Former Senior Pastor, St Mark's Anglican Church, Northbridge, now Archdeacon to the Archbishop of Sydney

"I have been delighted to support the work of Anglican Aid among the 2 million slaves working in brick kilns surrounding Lahore in Pakistan. The Miracle Schools, developed for their children, are helping to break the cycle of poverty and to bring the gospel to them."

I met Miracle School's leader, Angela Michael, at one of her talks and she agreed to come to our church to speak. I was the organiser. It was a steep learning curve for me, but really worthwhile.

To raise money, I have organised three car washes in our church carpark and two community garage sales. I have collected and sold firewood, advertised on community noticeboards, and drank only water for one week, rattling my Milo tin among work colleagues. I have also mown lawns with many repeat customers. It has been humbling that people have given donations. Mike Southon from Anglican Aid has given me some excellent leaflets, which I give to people I am serving.

So what motivates me to raise this money and awareness? I am very aware of what Christ has done for me, and where I would be if not for him."

Ken Silvester, Anglican Aid supporter

I THANK MY GOD EVERY TIME I REMEMBER YOU. IN ALL MY PRAYERS FOR ALL OF YOU, I ALWAYS PRAY WITH JOY BECAUSE OF YOUR PARTNERSHIP IN THE GOSPEL FROM THE FIRST DAY UNTIL NOW, BEING CONFIDENT OF THIS, THAT HE WHO BEGAN A GOOD WORK IN YOU WILL CARRY IT ON TO COMPLETION UNTIL THE DAY OF CHRIST JESUS.

PHILIPPIANS 1: 3-6

"My wife and I pray through the Anglican Aid Prayer Diary and thank God [that] Anglican Aid continues to tell people about Jesus and at the same time feed and clothe those in desperate need. After all, as the saying goes: "An empty stomach has no ears!"

It is encouraging that Anglican Aid is supporting the Barbara May Foundation and its medical director, Dr Andrew Browning, who is operating on impoverished women in Africa - curing them of obstetric fistula caused by obstructed childbirth, freeing them from the burden of leaking urine and faeces. And after they are cured, many are given the Bible on a solar powered MegaVoice listening device. Thanks Dr Andrew and the Barbara May Foundation. Thanks Anglican Aid. Thanks God!"

Pat Kennedy, Anglican Aid supporter

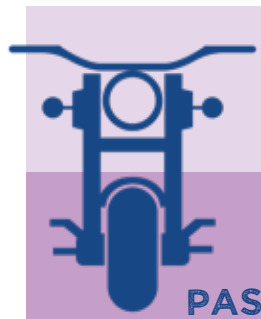

A Bible study group in Tathra has been meeting each week for more than 30 years, the last few years on Zoom. This year, after studying Romans and Acts, they were struck by Paul's enthusiasm to spread the word. "In prayer we decided that 2000 years later, we could/should do something to help," said group member, John.

So they decided to sponsor Samuel, a Bible college student in Tanzania. The group financially supports Samuel, prays for him each week and has sent him messages of encouragement. Here is one of those messages:

"Dear Samuel, Our prayer for you and your family is that you will continue to grow in the knowledge of God's grace and that your studies will progress so that your work for the Lord will be ever more productive."

BIBLE COLLEGE STUDENT SPONSORSHIPS: EQUIPPING THE NEXT GENERATION OF LEADERS IN DEVELOPING COUNTRIES

BISHOPS AND CHRISTIAN LEADERS IN DEVELOPING COUNTRIES ARE SEEKING HELP TO EQUIP THEIR PEOPLE TO TEACH THE BIBLE.

In 2020, Anglican Aid launched its Bible College Student Sponsorship Program, which enables Australian Christians to support Bible college students with financial support for their studies, prayer and encouragement. These students have been recommended by their local church pastor and bishop for their godly character and leadership potential. They come from many nations across Africa, Asia, Latin America and the Pacific.

Generous Australian sponsors are currently enabling 180 Bible college students to receive culturally relevant training at trusted Bible colleges. There are also over 300 students being supported to undertake short courses such as the Moore College Preliminary Theological Certificate.

From the moment I reached here I have been learning about the Bible - how as a created person from God, a man of God, a servant of God, we can interpret the word of God and how we can deliver the message to people so that they can gain everlasting life ...

So Anglican Aid is doing a great job because they are helping people to understand the word of God and they can learn, so at the end of the day, a lot of people will be saved.

Rev David Mponda, Anglican Church in Malawi
Completing Diploma of Theology at Bunda Bible College, Tanzania

I want to thank you, Anglican Aid, for all you have done to help support and sponsor students in this college from our diocese and from other dioceses too ... In our diocese we have planted over 465 new churches. We need that help to support the education and the sound knowledge of the Bible, for our students and many pastors and evangelists. Thank you very much. May the Lord bless you. As you sponsor one, you sponsor many.

COMMUNITY LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT

MADAGASCAR: PTC TRAINING IN MALAGASY

The Anglican Church of Madagascar longs to see more of their people receive Bible training to lead gospel ministries. To this end, the Centre for Global Mission with Rev Berthier Lainirina is translating Moore College Preliminary Theological Certificate (PTC) subjects into the local language, Malagasy. Seven subjects have been translated so far.

"The Malagasy translation is important so Malagasy people have books and materials to help them understand the word of God," said Rev Berthier Lainirina, Principal of St Patrick's Theological College, Toliara.

Anglican Aid is supporting 25 students from five dioceses to study the PTC in Malagasy. We are assisting with accommodation and travel costs for lecturers and students to attend six, week-long training events over two years. The Malagasy PTC materials are also being used at St Patrick's and in the six Madagascar dioceses.

Anglican Aid has also been supporting the Anglican Church of Madagascar's water projects, famine relief and MegaVoice audio Bible distribution.

THIS IS ONE OF 27 COMMUNITY LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT PROJECTS SUPPORTED BY ANGLICAN AID ACROSS 10 COUNTRIES

"I see PTC as part of training the future ministers of the church in Madagascar, not only for those who want to become priests but also for evangelists, catechists, Sunday school and youth leaders... Thank you to Anglican Aid. Thank you to the Diocese of Sydney, Moore College and the Centre for Global Mission."

Rev Berthier Lainirina

"PTC studies were very helpful. For example, one of the things I learned was about the unity of the Bible. Even though we have different authors and time periods of writing, we realise the Bible is one from beginning to the end and it's really helped me so much. Thank you."

Tsimatory, evangelist at Marwak Parish

HUMANITARIAN AND EMERGENCY ASSISTANCE

ANGLICAN AID PROVIDES EMERGENCY RELIEF TO COMMUNITIES DEVASTATED BY NATURAL DISASTERS, HEALTH EMERGENCIES AND WAR. WE WORK WITH TRUSTED CHRISTIAN ORGANISATIONS AND LOCAL CHURCHES WHO ARE DEEPLY INVOLVED IN THESE COMMUNITIES. THIS CREATES MEANINGFUL AND ONGOING RELATIONSHIPS.

TONGA: $148,000

In January 2022, Anglican Aid launched an appeal for Tonga following the Hunga Tonga-Hunga Ha'apai underwater volcano eruption. The ash falls and tsunamis which followed caused widespread devastation of crops, water infrastructure, housing and roads. In partnership with Missions New Zealand, The Anglican Diocese of Polynesia and Anglican Relief and Development Fund, money was given to provide food, water, medical and other emergency supplies.

CYCLONE ANA: $21,000

In January 2022, Cyclone Ana struck southeast Africa, destroying buildings and infrastructure throughout Madagascar, Malawi and Mozambique.

Two weeks later, Cyclone Batsirai hit Madagascar, causing further devastation. Generous donors gave to an Anglican Aid appeal to provide funds for immediate relief including food, water, medical supplies, farming inputs, household items and mosquito nets, through Anglican churches in these countries.

RESETTLING AFGHAN REFUGEES: $165,000

In August 2021, the world watched in horror as the Taliban took over Afghanistan. In October, Anglican Aid launched an appeal to help resettle Christian Afghan refugees in Brazil, under the care of Anglican Aid's long-term partner Sammy Nagib, and the Diocese of Vitoria.

Emergency supplies for Tonga.

KENYA: MARSABIT AID FOR INTERNALLY DISPLACED PEOPLE

In August 2021, tribal conflict in Marsabit, northern Kenya drove 570 households to flee their homes. Anglican Aid launched an appeal and provided $65,000 for food relief for internally displaced people in Marsabit.

GIVING PHYSICAL AND SPIRITUAL FOOD

Alongside providing food relief, the Anglican Church ran a mission to internally displaced people in Marsabit.

"We thank God that through the mission department, we were able to give food relief as we ministered the word of God. Thank you to Anglican Aid. We were able to reach around 837 people and out of that, 30 people gave their life to Christ."

Pastor Boriso

"Marsabit Diocese is prone to constant humanitarian crises, resulting from recurring droughts and interethnic conflicts. Anglican Aid has always offered support and alleviated human suffering during such times in addition to supporting gospel proclamation... We look forward to our continued partnership, for together we are better and stronger in discipling the church and transforming the world for Christ."

Projek Bali Families is supporting education for children living in poverty

LOVING CHILDREN: BREAKING CYCLES OF POVERTY

ANGLICAN AID'S PROJECTS SEEK TO BREAK THE CYCLE OF POVERTY, GIVING CHILDREN HOPE FOR A BETTER FUTURE THROUGH EDUCATION, LIFE-SKILL TRAINING AND FAMILY SUPPORT.

INDONESIA: PROJEK BALI FAMILIES

In Singajara, Widya Asih runs Projek Bali Families, providing family-based educational support, life-skills, meals, school uniforms and stationery for families living in poverty. A ministry of the Christian Protestant Church of Bali, it shows Christ's love to children who wouldn't otherwise easily access education.

"I want my children to be at the highest level of education . . . because I realise life is very difficult if you don't have a high educational background. By joining them in this program, I am happy that they spend positive time studying, equipping themselves with school lessons and other skills. This program brings change, especially to children who grow up in poor families."

Yasa, father of Kevin and Tasya

"Through the lessons given in this program, most of which are well packaged so that they are fun and not boring, it makes me more confident both in lessons and when interacting with other friends.... I think it's good if this story can be shared, since I came from a very poor family. My father did not have a fixed job, but he had to struggle to provide for his children, especially the need for education. This situation also makes me less confident when hanging out with my friends. But father often said that we should go to school as high as possible, so that we don't end up like him."

Kevin, 10 years old

"Since I joined this program I feel more comfortable, because there are so many children who experience the same thing as I experienced. I come from a poor family, just like them. Seeing them excited, I became excited to study too.

If I didn't join this program, I might still be a shy girl, lacking self-confidence and motivation."

Tasya, 8 years old

EDUCATION: GIVING CHILDREN A BETTER FUTURE

ANGLICAN AID'S EDUCATION PROJECTS PROVIDE IMPOVERISHED CHILDREN WITH SAFE SPACES TO LEARN AND GROW.

LEBANON: GOOD SHEPHERD SCHOOL

Reem and her husband Emil started Good Shepherd School in 2014 to educate children from the many Syrian refugee families who were living in tents near their home in the north of Lebanon. They now teach more than 350 students.

Reem and Emil are seeing dramatic changes in the hearts and minds of the children. Many start at the school lacking confidence, rarely smiling, and showing aggression towards each other.

"I am constantly filled with joy seeing the big difference in their attitudes towards each other and towards their teachers, their ability to learn, and especially the joy - the transformation of their faces from sad to hopeful," said Reem. "And I believe that the deepest reason for this transformation resides in the fact that they realised that God is not an angry God, but a loving father. They experience this reality through the way the teachers and all the staff treat them."

RAHAF'S STORY

"My family and I left Syria because of the war. We now live close to the school. Our house was bombed and so we had nothing left in Syria. Father Emil and his wife Reem came to visit us. God bless them. When they visited us we were working in the fields. They invited us to the school and showed us the light. I did not have any education and so they gave us the opportunity to learn and to excel."

"Thank you because we would've never been where we are now without your prayers and support."

HEALTH: CARING FOR THE POOR

ANGLICAN AID WORKS WITH TRUSTED CHRISTIAN PARTNERS TO CARE FOR FAMILIES WHO WOULDN'T OTHERWISE BE ABLE TO ACCESS MEDICAL SERVICES.

PAKISTAN: VICTORIA MEMORIAL HOSPITAL

In partnership with One2Another, Anglican Aid is supporting Victoria Memorial Hospital. The hospital was established in March 2021 to provide affordable, quality health care to poor and marginalised people in Multan, Pakistan. The Christian staff begin their work day in prayer and Bible reading and serve as a witness to Christ's love.

In November 2021, an eye-care department was established at the hospital and since then it has helped over 700 patients, including 50 cataract surgeries.

GIVE THANKS

Praise God that Wilson's sight was restored through the new eye clinic at Victoria Memorial Hospital.

RESTORING SIGHT

Wilson Bhatti heard about Victoria Memorial Hospital through his church. The 66-year-old had a business creating marble pots and gravestones and his left eye had been damaged by marble dust in the course of his work. Unable to work and with no income, he was struggling to support his family. He sought help at the Victoria Memorial Hospital's new eye clinic. After successful surgery, he is now able to work again. He is extremely grateful to God to have his sight back, and to One2Another for providing affordable, quality care.

"YOUR COMING, LISTENING TO OUR HEARTS AND EVEN HELPING US WITH THE APPLICATION PROCESS HAS SHOWN US THAT GOD HEARS"

DISABILITY INCLUSION: MADE IN GOD'S IMAGE

AS CHRIST HAS WELCOMED AND LOVED US, ANGLICAN AID SEEKS TO STRENGTHEN COMMUNITIES TO WELCOME AND INCLUDE PEOPLE WITH DISABILITIES. WE WORK WITH PROJECTS THAT SUPPORT FAMILIES, PROVIDE HEALTHCARE AND REHABILITATION, AND PROMOTE COMMUNITY ADVOCACY.

SOUTH AFRICA: TIMION DISABILITY COUNSELLING AND COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

Based on South Africa's southern coast, Timion is a Christian organisation that provides therapy, training and assistive equipment for children living with disabilities and their families. It has a particular focus on supporting and equipping parents and carers of children living with disabilities. Its camps are a great blessing to families whose day-to-day existence can be lonely and difficult.

Timion changes lives as parents build friendships and encounter Christian fellowship and teaching.

GOD HEARS

Simamkele's family were living in a shack that leaked, with no electricity, a muddy floor and damp beds. Timion staff helped Simamkele to apply for a disability grant from the government that will help improve their living situation. The help Simamkele's family received made a big impact: "Your coming, listening to our hearts and even helping us with the application process has shown us that God hears ... We are hopeful and that's something that has changed and it makes a big difference in the way we move forward from now on. Thank you for being there for us."

GIVE THANKS

Give thanks that God's love is being shared through Timion staff and many services have resumed after COVID restrictions have eased.

“OUR PRAYER IS THAT THE COMMUNITY WILL DEVELOP AND BE A BETTER PLACE TO LIVE ...”

INCOME GENERATION: RELIABLE INCOME FOR PASTORS

ANGLICAN AID SUPPORTS PROJECTS THAT EQUIP PEOPLE IN POOR COMMUNITIES WITH SKILLS THAT BRING RELIABLE INCOME. WE SUPPORT ACTIVITIES LIKE AGRICULTURAL TRAINING, APPRENTICESHIP WORKSHOPS, AND SMALL BUSINESS LOANS.

ZIMBABWE: HONEYWORLD

Honeyworld empowers local farmers to build sustainable honey-making businesses. It provides training, equipment, initial capital and ongoing support to harvest and sell honey. Its particular focus is helping pastors to generate an income through bee-keeping.

In 2022, Honeyworld is working with 70 beekeepers in local villages and has supplied more than 150 hives. Honeyworld bought 5.5 tonnes of honey from their farmers this year, up from 300kg when they started in 2019. It then sells the honey to local and regional markets, passing on the income to the farmers.

Rev Munjuwanjuwa is a pastor who has been keeping bees since he was a boy. He was only selling a few jars of honey in his village before he completed training with Honeyworld. Now he has five additional hives, which has substantially increased his output and is providing him with regular income to support his ministry.

“Our prayer is that the community will develop and be a better place to live and this initiative has shown us that this is possible.”

Gertrude Madoro, a Honeyworld beekeeper from Chikukwa.

“We are deeply convinced that the only lasting impact that the whole world desperately needs is to hear and respond to the gospel. To that end, we intentionally seek to involve rural pastors in our projects.”

Tamuka Magondo, Honeyworld Zimbabwe Project Coordinator.

GIVE THANKS

Praise God that Honeyworld is providing an income for pastors and villagers in Zimbabwe.

VALUING WOMEN: PROVIDING SAFE WORK ALTERNATIVES

ANGLICAN AID DEMONSTRATES CHRIST'S LOVE BY SUPPORTING HOLISTIC PROJECTS THAT VALUE WOMEN. THIS WORK ENCOMPASSES CRISIS ACCOMMODATION, INCOME GENERATING SKILLS, GIRLS' EDUCATION, SUPPORT FOR FAMILIES, AND MORE.

SOUTH AFRICA: UMTHOMBO WEMPILO

A ministry of Christ Church Hillbrow, Umthombo Wempilo is making Jesus known to sex workers and other vulnerable women. As well as providing a place of refuge for women, healthcare, accommodation and advocacy, the project connects women with skills-based workshops and peer support to provide better work alternatives.

GOD RESTORES PRECIOUS

Precious started working in the brothels of Johannesburg after her husband left her and she was struggling to support herself. It was there that she heard about the ministry of Umthombo Wempilo, helping sex workers find alternative employment.

When Precious joined one of its Bible studies, she broke down as she heard the story of the cross and Jesus' love. Her life changed. Turning to Jesus, she found a safe new job and she continues in her Bible study group, thankful to God.

MADAGASCAR: "A GREAT BLESSING"

Anglican Aid is working with the Diocese of Toliara to build wells, pumps, pipelines and water tanks to provide clean water for drinking and irrigation.

The pump in Fenoarivo hadn't worked for years, despite promises from politicians to fix it. In September 2021, the Diocese of Toliara restored it with support from Anglican Aid, giving access to clean water in 200 households. Kasiaso, a farmer with six children, said the pump has saved time and reduced disease.

"We feel that this gift is a great blessing from God!" said Kasiaso. "Thank you for funding and supporting this project."

GIVE THANKS

Praise God that clean water has been provided through his people in Madagascar.

The pump in Fenoarivo was restored, giving access to clean, safe water to 200 households.

PERSECUTED CHRISTIANS SUPPORT

ANGLICAN AID LAUNCHED ITS PERSECUTED CHRISTIANS SUPPORT PROGRAM AT EASTER 2022, PROVIDING PRAYER, ADVOCACY AND HUMANITARIAN ASSISTANCE TO CHRISTIANS SUFFERING PERSECUTION IN AFRICA, SOUTH ASIA AND THE MIDDLE EAST.

NIGERIA: SUPPORTING PERSECUTED CHRISTIANS

In 2021, over 5,000 Christians in Nigeria lost their lives at the hands of Islamic groups Boko Haram, Fulani militants and Islamic State West Africa Province. In north and central Nigeria, over 10,000 people were displaced in these attacks.

In Plateau and southern Kaduna, which were the epicentre of the Fulani Islamist militia attacks, more than 100,000 people were displaced in over 150 villages that suffered devastating attacks.

In partnership with the Diocese of Jos, Anglican Aid has provided maize and beans to over 20 villages, impacting 12,500 people, predominantly women and children. Zinc roofing sheets have been supplied for rebuilding homes that have been damaged, providing shelter for about 7,000 people.

"I have had the confidence to stand in front of the congregation in church and proclaim the love of Christ as demonstrated by our brothers and sisters abroad through Anglican Aid. How else could I have told them that Jesus cares and how could God have proven his love but through the demonstration of the help, the food and these roofing sheets coming from people we do not know and have never met?"

FINANCIAL SUMMARY

This year income and expenditure is presented for our three funds combined, to reflect the way that our three entities work together to support the ministry of our partners around the world.

The aggregate income for all funds administered by Anglican Aid for the year ended June 2022 was $8,069, 671. This is a 36% increase in total income from the previous financial year. We praise God for the faithful generosity of his people for this wonderful result!

Important contributors to this increase in income are the ongoing growth of our Bible College Students Sponsorship program, growth of our long-term development projects portfolio, significant donations from a number of major donors towards long-term development projects and gospel ministry, and the generous response of many donors to emergencies, particularly the disaster in Tonga.

Notable changes to sources of income during the year were the School Building Fund operating to enable Bible college construction, reduced income from government grants as COVID-19 impacts recede, and the transition of management of the Australian Community Care Program from Anglican Aid to Anglicare on 1 January 2022. A significant portion of income, 14%, was received in the form of non tax-deductible donations which are used for overseas gospel ministry.

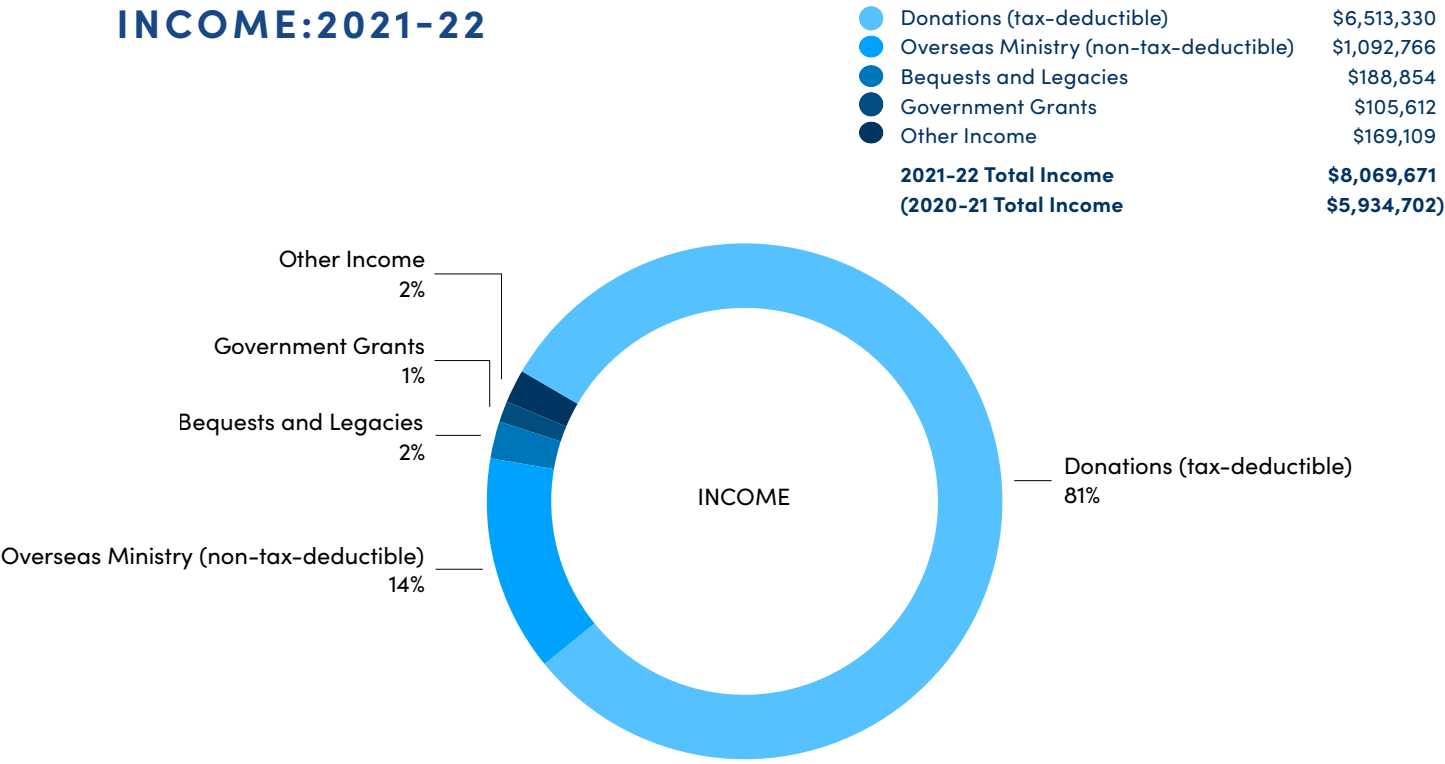

Total funds expended on projects, including project management costs, was $6,552,675, meaning that 81% of all expenditure went towards our projects and partners. $981,772 or 12% of expenditure was used for accountability, fundraising and administration, while a small amount of funds, $535,224 or 7% of funds, remain in reserve for new projects and initiatives to build the future capacity of Anglican Aid.

Our largest project sector, using 46% of all expenditure, is education and training, reflecting our programs in community leadership training, Bible College Student Sponsorships, and the Developing Countries Education Program. We continue to fund long-term development projects in diverse sectors including WASH and food security, and respond to emergencies as required, with these two areas comprising 21% of all expenditure.

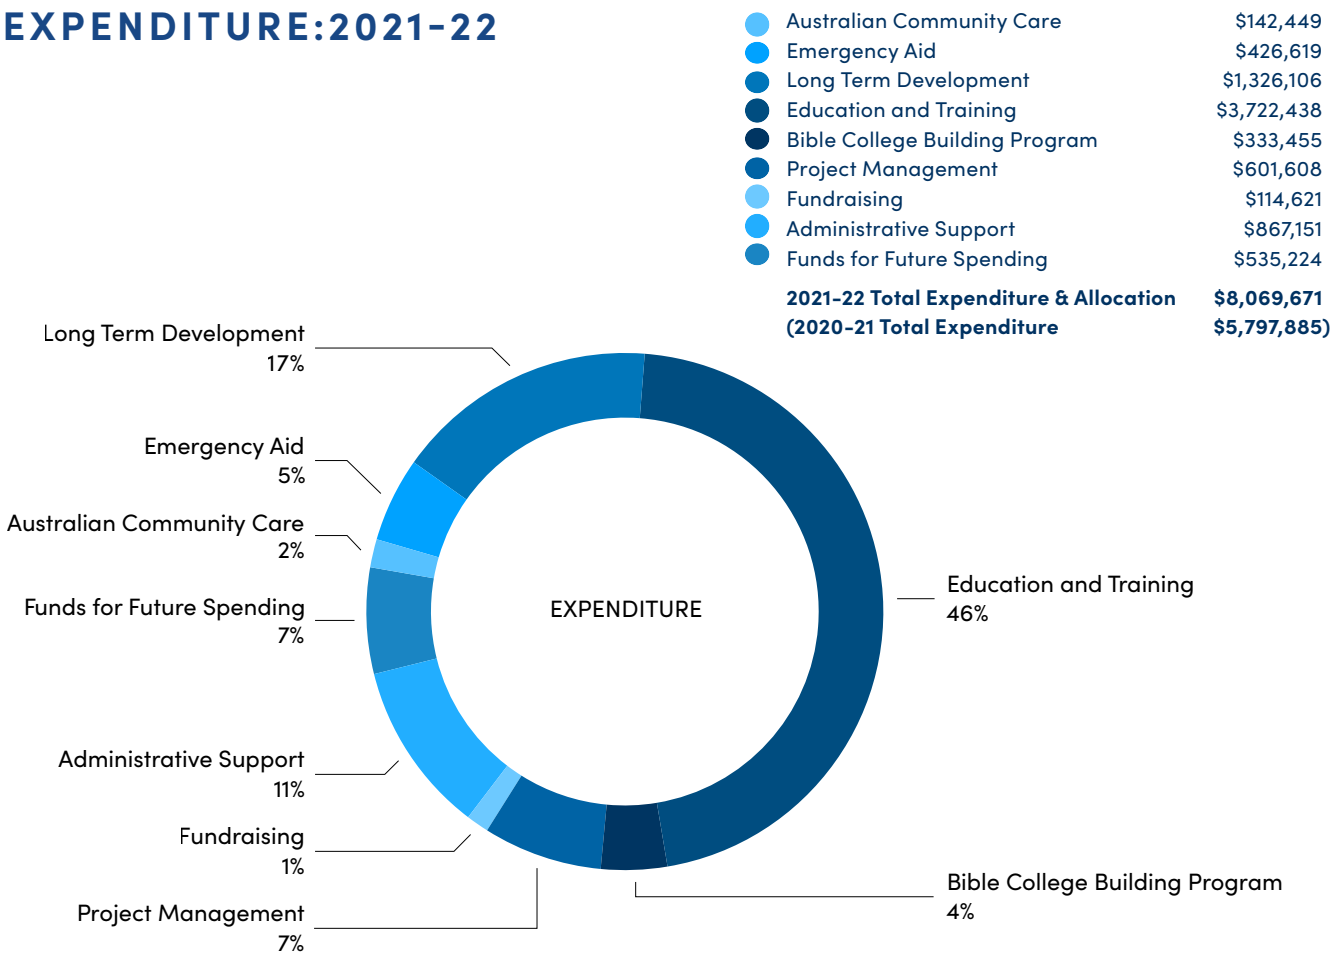

The full audited financial statements for each fund can be accessed on the Anglican Aid website, or on the ACNC website after 30 September 2022 by entering the ABN for each fund in the ‘search for a charity’ section.

AUDITED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS WILL BE AVAILABLE AT ANGLICANAID.ORG.AU/FINANCIALS AFTER 30 SEPTEMBER 2022.
